

Last Modified on 08/03/2023 1:41 pm MDT

With the release of the new website, there have been some changes to how your order is processed. Instead of having the option to edit an order after it has been placed, you will be allotted 15 minutes to cancel your order. In the rare case that you notice something needs to be changed on your order (within the available 15 minute time period), simply cancel your order and place a new order according to your needs.

---