

Last Modified on 11/03/2023 3:51 pm MDT

Klarna does not approve 100% of all orders and our aim is to support responsible, ethical, and sensible spending habits. We understand that it can be frustrating to be declined having been approved in the past. Our approval process, however, helps Klarna responsibly offer our services to our customers. Please understand that our customer service agents are not able to change the automated outcome of the approval decision.

---